INTERDISCIPLINARY FORUM on SUPERFICIAL FUNGAL INFECTIONS

interdisciplinary forum on superficial fungal infections

October 11 - 13, 2010

Jena

<http://ifo-sfi.de/>

Dear colleagues

we cordially invite you to the first Interdisciplinary Forum on Superficial Fungal Infections which will be held in October this year in Jena. The field of Superficial Fungal Infections has developed rapidly during the last years and new fungal molecules have been identified and the interaction and cross talk between fungi and the human host are elaborated and are being understood in greater detail.

This interdisciplinary forum is an element of a series of workshop organized by the study group Eukaryotic Pathogens from the German Society for Hygiene and Microbiology and is organized in collaboration with the German Society for Mycology. The program reserves time to incorporate the latest development in the field which we hope will be presented by young investigators and doctoral students. Relevant aspects and novel data that are covered in the submitted abstracts will be selected for oral presentations.

We are looking forward to welcome you in Jena and have a productive and exciting workshop.

The local scientific organizing committee

P.F. Zipfel, B. Hube, O. Kurzai, P. Staib and U.-C. Hipler

Posters and Abstracts

In order to allow the presentation and discussion of new results a poster presentation will be provided and posters will be displayed throughout the meeting. In addition we encourage young researchers and doctoral students to present their data. The program has reserved one session for oral presentations from the submitted abstracts. This session will allow young researchers to present their results and discuss the work with experts in the field of superficial fungal infections.

All abstracts will be printed in form of a congress booklet which will be presented at the beginning of the workshop. Deadline for abstract submission is August 31, 2010. For abstract submission please use the online form at www.ifo-sfi.de.
